A Sense of Place

The exhibition called 'Line of Site' in Warrnambool Art Gallery shows many artworks about where we live. There are images of Warrnambool, Portland and the Shipwreck Coast.

Challenge - guess where!

This painting shows somewhere popular in Warrnambool. The painting shows the place looking very different to how it does today. Here are some clues:

- It begins with L
- You can play there
- You might see some different birds there
- You can take a ride in a boat

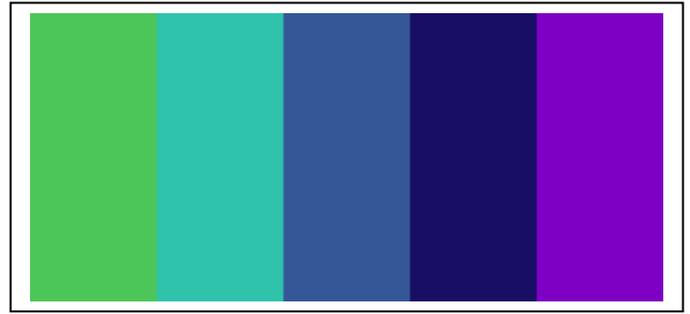

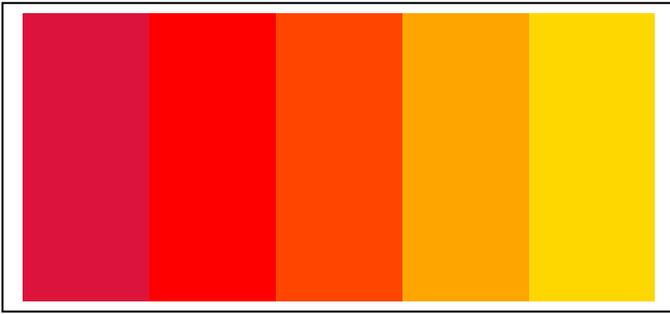

Did you work it out? Write the answer below (answer at the bottom of the sheet)

Colour

What colours can you see in the painting? Using coloured pencils can you fill each of the boxes in with colours you can see in the picture?

Colour helps to create feelings and moods. They can be warm or cold. Which of the colour samples below is warm and which is cool. Write your answers below.

Spend some time sketching a picture of a cold or warm scene using colours which help you to feel that way.

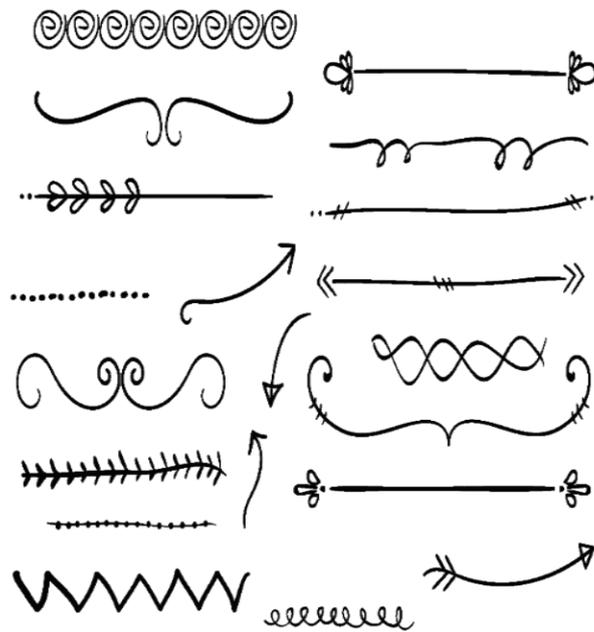

Louis Buvelot
Sunset, Waterpool at Coleraine 1874

This painting depicts (shows) Coleraine. It is about 130km away from Warrnambool.

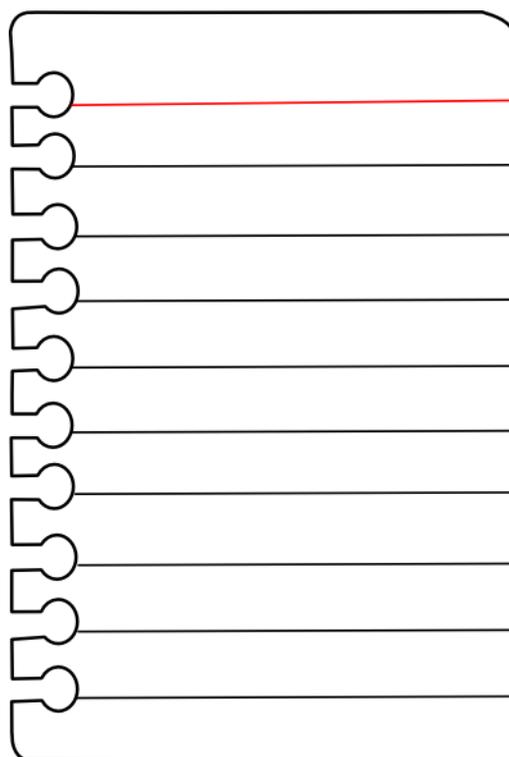

Lines

Just like colours, lines help us to build pictures and shapes. They can be:

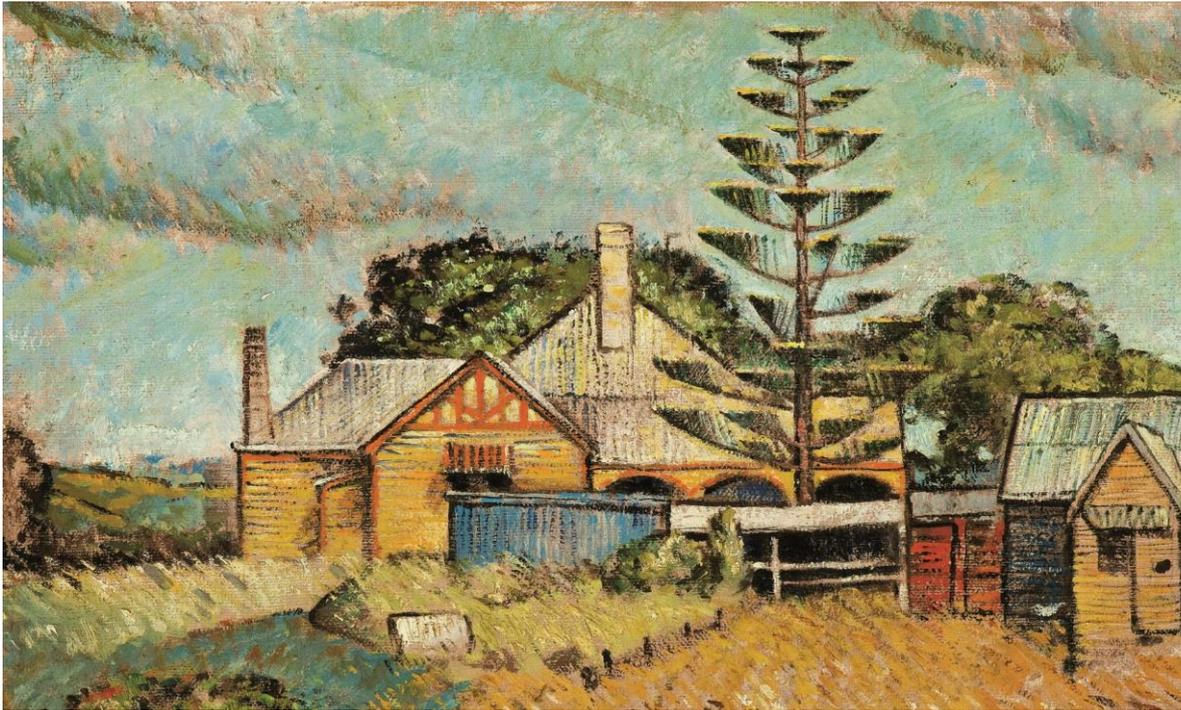

What different lines can you see in Louis Buvelot's painting of Coleraine? You can ring around them in pencil as you see them.

What other things can you spot in the painting? Make a list here:

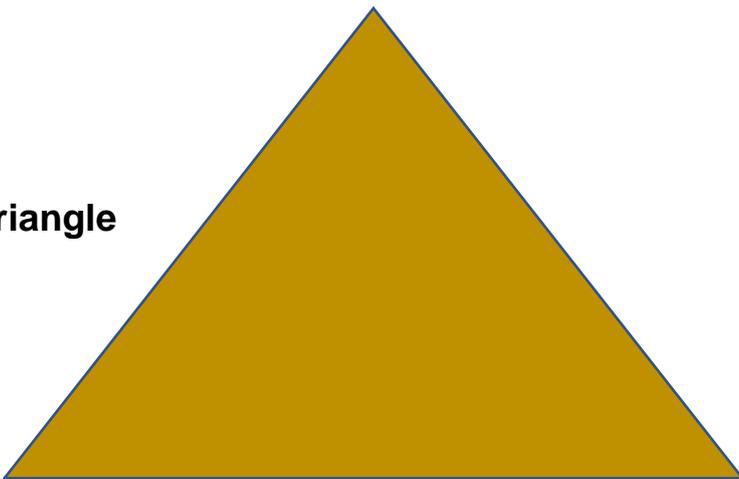

Shapes

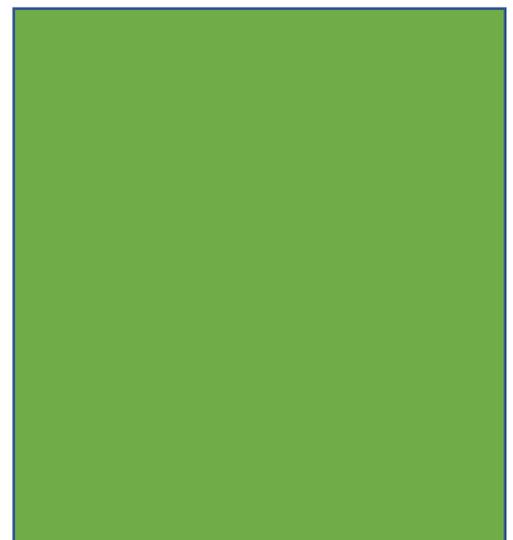

Percy Watson
Farmhouse, Warrnambool c1946

This painting of a farmhouse in Warrnambool is made up of lots of shapes. Shapes helps us to make pictures. Shapes can have names like:

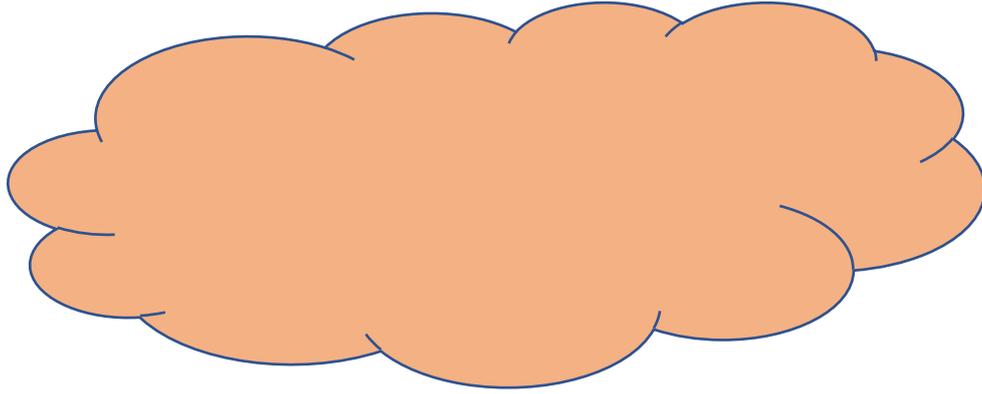

Triangle

Rectangle

Or they can be just made up (free form), like this:

Can you circle all the shapes you can see in the painting of the Warrnambool farmhouse?

Your turn

Time to have a go at creating your own landscape (picture of a scene rather than a person). You can do a

- Drawing
- Sketch
- Collage
- Digital drawing

When you create your artwork think about the lines, shapes and colours that you use in your landscape. Is it a cold day, warm day, a dry landscape or by the sea? What shapes can you use to help create your landscape?

Answer to the challenge: The painting is of Lake Pertobe! It is called 'Lake Pertobe' and is by an artist called Henri Tebbitt. It was painted 1893.
